

Farm & Food: Ag Comm hasn't met since the last Board meeting. We are working to understand how to deal with solar farms on farmland property. One of the attendees who attended the workshop on farm friendly communities, particularly about the VMFSP, contacted me for information about our farmer survey. The farmer survey was an initial step that we took with Maine Farmland Trust to ask Winslow farmers about their needs and interests.